Beautification Program Activities Get Underway

Belle Glade Beautification Program workers have been divided into four groups to canvass the city and see what improvements have been made since the program got underway last year.

Workers were assigned to specific areas at the organizational meeting held last Thursday evening at the Chamber of Commerce.

As the workers make their survey, pictures will be taken of improvements and bad spots to help in formulating definite work plans for the coming year.

"We hope to get vacant lots cleaned up, dispose of trash, litter and junk cars," a worker said. "We plan to be helpful to new businesses opening up by providing landscaping plans and assistance," she said.

New officers for the coming year will be announced at the next meeting, 8 p. m. Thursday night, October 20, at the Chamber building. Beautification program chairman Don Fieles said, "Anyone who would like to join our group will be most welcome to do so," he said. "We need all the hands we can get."

Wee Care In Action With Full Enrollment

The Board of Directors is proud to announce the opening of their third season at the Wee Care Child Development Center. Even though the doors remained open during the special summer program the staff and its enrollees are settling down again to a busy season.

"Because we believe we are here to aid agricultural employed families with preschool children it is our policy to keep high standards, provide the best of instruction, and give the highest quality of learning experiences we can engage,"

Attorney John E. Baker, Jr. was named to serve as temporary judge when Judge Matthews is out of the city. Mrs. Aleese Cherry who has served as temporary judge for several years was commended for her services and City Clerk Vera Jones was instructed to write a letter to Mrs. Cherry expressing the commission's appreciation for her years of service.

The staff started this year with a built in determination to give all they have in making of the children, a board member reported.

"We are inviting interested persons to come in and see what we are doing with our youth. We thank you whole heartedly for your liberal donations during the construction of our building; we thank you for your donations in gifts and toys and finance last term; however, we would also like to thank you for paying a visit to see what your gifts have helped to build these past two years," the director said.

Annual Chamber Dinner Attended By Near 200

Some two hundred members and guests attended the Chamber of Commerce dinner held Tuesday night at the Holiday Inn, the third such event since the annual dinner program was reactivated.

The colorful, festive table and rostrum decor was provided by members of Belle Glade Garden Club, under the direction of the president Mrs. N. E. Gaskill.

Awarding a "Man of the Year" is the outstanding event of the annual gathering. Police Chief Charles Goodlett was honored as this year's recipient of this top award for outstanding service in the department, his work with the port committee in expanding facilities at the marina, and his participation in civic affairs.

Goodlett was given a unanimous vote by the selection committee who kept their choice a closely guarded secret. The award was presented by Chamber president Dr. Thomas P. Baker, who cited Goodlett's endorsement by the Palm Beach Grand Jury on the department's operation following a probe into alleged gambling in the city.

Goodlett was recognized too for his contribution as construction foreman of the Second Street bridge, which has eased main street traffic bottlenecks and was built at a considerable saving to tax payers.

Goodlett came to the Glades in 1940. He, his wife, Imogene, and son David, reside at 1832 West Canal Street.

Luther W. Jones, Sr., publisher and editor of The Belle Glade Herald, who died June 7, of this year, was the first Belle Glade citizen to receive the Man of the Year award in 1964. His contributions to the community, county and state were innumerable.

Henry O. Earwood was the 1965 selection for Man of the Year and distinctly earned recognition for his outstanding contribution to highway safety through the installation of SR 80 guard rails. Goodlett is the only graduate in the Glades area of the Federal Investigation Academy, training that has aided in giving Belle Glade an outstanding police department. He was personally complimented for his work with his 27-member force by State Attorney Thomas Johnson following the Grand Jury probe.

George Wedgworth presented the Governor's industrial award. C. C. President Baker, who presented the plaque, cited Wedgworth's accomplishments in convincing the federal government of the need for shore laborers.

Grant And Loan Approved By FHA For South Bay To Clewiston Water Line

Efforts of local citizens over many years devoted to securing a water line from South Bay to Clewiston are finally bringing results.

The Farmers Home Administration has approved a grant and loan each roughly in the amount of one quarter million dollars and construction can start when meter connection fees have been paid by all of the 161 subscribers.

In making the announcement this week, L. B. Baldwin, secretary and treasurer of South Shore Water Association, a non-profit corporation formed to manage the water line, said it is imperative that residents in the Bean City-Lake Harbor and Hooker's Point areas make their deposits early.

Securing use of water will involve paying a meter connection charge which for the average household would be $95, after the construction of the pipeline has been made, or a fee of $71.25 if paid before construction.

L. C. Nipper at Lake Harbor Grocery is taking payments and getting connections signed for Bean City-Lake Harbor residents.

Don Kelley at Kelley's Market and A. P. Baldrice at Baldrice's Market in Hooker's Point are receiving payments for that area.

A concentrated drive is being made of individual homes with the expectation that larger users will have to make up shortages.

As of Monday night, October 10, 48 members had been signed for a total of $3,606.25. George Young one of the active program workers reported.

Commissioner Bud Weaver, Mutt Thomas and A. P. Baldrice are other active workers associated with the water line effort. The group has been striving for "a good many years" to get city water for this area. "This is the first chance we've had to get anywhere with it," L. B. Baldwin said. "If we don't get the connection charges we won't get the loan and grant. Construction can start provided the 161 subscribers can be obtained and their connection charges prepaid."

If a total of 161 meters is

License Is Exact Opposite Of Freedom

This week — October 9 through 15, Newspapers throughout the nation are observing National Newspaper Week.

The importance of newspapers is emphasized by the fact that they have been independent of government since pre-Revolution days to the extent that they are not licensed.

Other news media ARE licensed. The word "license" comes from a Latin word meaning "to allow." If you have a "license," it means you have asked permission from a governmental authority to do a certain act, or engage in a certain activity. You may, or may not, get the license. The matter is for the authorities to decide.

Of course, the public welfare is protected by some licensing. It makes good sense, for example, that persons in the practices of medicine and pharmacy be required to pass stiff licensing examinations, and that the licensee be subject to review. The same might be said for other professions and crafts engaged in important work affecting the general public. But in a democracy, the licensing of knowledge doesn't work.

Licensing is the exact opposite of freedom. If those who gather news, and comment on it, were required periodically to renew their licenses, this by itself would act to stultify the full feeling of freedom with responsibility so necessary to any handling news of public affairs. Licensed newspapermen wouldn't feel free. They wouldn't BE free.

American newspapermen broke away from licensing before the American Revolution. The first colonial newspaperman to print an "unlicensed" newspaper was James Franklin. In 1721 he established the "New-England Courant," a lively outspoken trouble-making newspaper. Before that time newspaper publishers took their copy to government censors and "cleared" it before publication. "News" before Franklin's time was generally limited to facts and opinions which officials thought safe for the public to read. Franklin took out vigorously after the pompous religious and political authorities, dropped the words "Printed by Authority" from his front page, and was thrown into jail. His New-England Courant, folded, and the old licensing power was revived.

After Franklin's young brother, Benjamin, made newspaper publishing respectable, there was little further attempt to control colonial newspapers. Some historians say it was largely the work of skilled journalists and propagandists who brought the American Revolution about. From the 1600's in England down to the present time, men who print the news have been very sensitive to any effort by government to censor news before it is published.

There are men in government who would be only too happy to censor your news. There are strong departments in the federal government now, which impose an "internal censorship" on news. There has even been official justification for telling deliberate falsehoods, so clearly enunciated by Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs Arthur Sylvester, who defined news as "weaponry," and declared that where news is concerned, the ends justify the means. News about government is getting more difficult to report, each day.

Yet, fear of the government censor is not in the mind of American newspapermen. Other media ARE licensed. Those who minimize the effect of licensing on free speech should ask themselves: "When did I last hear outspoken criticism of the F. C. C. over radio or TV? Or, for that matter, strong editorial comments about ANYTHING ELSE in government?"

The people who work on American newspapers still have a feeling of freedom. This feeling is drawn from the clear knowledge that newspaper work is bound up with free thought, which is sanctioned as the first law of the land. It will be a long, long time before newspapermen run to government for licensing.

It's the absence of licensing that makes newspaper free. It's the absence of restraints — within responsibility — that define freedom. That's the essence of our political process. . . . that's the essence of good journalism . . . and that's the way we hope it remains.

If you see an editor who pleases everybody, there will be a glass plate over his face and he won't be standing up.

Uncle Dan From Doolie Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Most of the fellers at the country store Saturday night was agreed that things in general was getting worse.

Ed Doolittle more or less took charge of the session and when Ed gets wound up he don't leave much for the commercials. Ed is the kind of feller that if you ask him what time it is he'll set down and explain how you can build a eight-day clock.

What got Ed started was Zeke Grubb reporting he had saw two items in the papers that had got him shook up a bit. One item announced the Government was spending $6,000,000 to turn a old hotel into a Job Core center for 1,900 girls to study water skiing, makeup, dancing and gardening and they was going to have a teaching staff of 200, or one teacher fer ever three girls. The second item, reported Zeke, was about the Government setting up $91,000 to teach 60 women in Gibson county, Tennessee, how to cook.

Ed claimed that actual this was small change in the overall program agin poverty they was running in the Federal city. He reported, for instant, that Senator James Pearson of Kansas had found out this new-fangled office of Economic Opportunity had paid a private company $87,000 just to compile a catalog of the Government anti-poverty programs, and had give the same firm another $25,000 to print a comic book aimed at promoting the Job Core. Senator Pearson, said Ed, had reported that they decided not to use the stuff and that the books was now in a warehouse running up a storage charge of $125 a month.

Clem Webster of the Great Society claimed the Government was tightening up on them things and the situation would get better. Personal, Mister Editor, I don't put much faith in Clem's predictions. He's what my preacher calls a optimist and I have took note through the years that when Clem goes fishing, which is pritty regular, he always takes a fryin pan with him. The last time I saw the pan it was practical new.

But the storekeeper slipped as how maybe Clem was right, reported he had saw where the U.S. Department of Agriculture had announced that, as of January 1, 1967, soup companies would have to put 2 per cent chicken and 2 per cent turkey in the can afore they could label it "chicken" soup or "turkey" soup. He told the fellers the soup companies had been fighting this rule in the Federal court in New Jersey since 1964 and it probable cost the taxpayers a million dollars fer lawyers but he was expecting a increase in his sales of canned chicken soup when they started putting a little chicken in it.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Dear Editor:

"OUR SELECTIVE SERVICE BOARD CHAIRMAN"

We the citizens of this entire area are most fortunate in having as our Selective Service Board Chairman, Frank J. Morris. In years past this office was fathered by our late Herald Editor-in-Chief Luther W. Jones, Sr. Selecting a Chairman is a most important and sacred duty, as we the former servicemen and women know from our experience in the armed forces of our Country. Many of the veterans in this area are from other states, but know well what it means to have leadership at the top when it comes to selecting men for the Armed Forces of the United States. Most of the strength in total numbers in our Armies comes straight from the Local Draft Boards. As a friend and a fellow veteran of Mr. Morris, I wish him well and I know his selection of men to be sent forward for service will be fair and most honorable. It was indeed a splendid and most deserving selection.

Respectfully,

Restless Electorate

As the congressional and gubernatorial campaign season comes down to the final stretch, it is increasingly clear that the voters intend to hand the Great Society a surprise on election day. From coast to coast, political observers report a ground swell of conservative backlash.

In California, the rioting in San Francisco is regarded as having moved the electorate even more in the direction of conservative reform. Many Californians are determined to restore the rule of law and order in their state. The working public in that state also seems very indignant over long-standing abuses of welfare.

In Georgia, conservative newspapers characterize the defeat of former liberal Governor Ellis Arnall as repudiation of the social views and political programs of the Johnson administration. Those politicians who have played ball with the liberals in Washington are, in the words of today's youngsters, "all shook up." THE AUGUSTA HERALD, for example, commented editorially that the people of Georgia "have become fed up with the social planning, unchecked spending, and experimentation of the national administration."

The "backlash" as the phenomenon is sometimes described, is a remarkable tribute to the principles and common sense of the American people. Since the Kennedy administration took over in Washington in 1961, the people of this nation have been subjected to an unparalleled bribery attempt. Both the Kennedy and Johnson administrations have sought to "buy" the American people with their own tax dollars. The officials of both administrations have offered large sums of federal aid to communities and states on the condition that they accept programs and adopt plans that the communities and states regard as wrong.

Those communities and states that refused to go along with the new reconstruction edicts have been victimized by federal pressure. In the case of the unconstitutional school "guidelines," officials have resorted to underhanded methods. The toughest demands have been given in personal conferences or over the telephone so that no records are available that would outrage the public.

The evidence of the "backlash" indicates that the American people can't be bought or beaten into political submission. These days, it is hard for an individual, a company, town or state to defy the bureaucrats. The federal judiciary is almost completely in the hands of those who want to force reconstruction of American customs. People who stand up to the bureaucrats may find that their business records and back tax payments are subject to fishing expeditions and to general harassment. But the American people still have one immensely powerful weapon with which to protect their traditional liberties. This is the vote.

On November 8, Americans who see their nation slipping deeper and deeper into a state of virtual totalitarianism can strike back against the Johnson administration and its collaborators in Congress and governors' mansions. They can send to Congress men who will impose constitutional controls on the administration and who will inhibit the arrogant bureaucrats.

As Americans follow the final electoral maneuvers, they would do well to bear in mind President Johnson's proposal for four-year terms for members of the House of Representatives. If he had his way in this matter, the people would be deprived this year of an opportunity to vote "no confidence" on the Great Society. Fortunately, the two-year term is still in effect, and the voice of the people cannot be silenced by the White House.

The liberal attitude always has been that the people are stupid and don't know what is best for them. But the American people are plenty smart. A man who works in a plant or office or on a farm knows that those who refuse to work don't deserve government coddling. The average parent knows that the best kind of school for his child is a neighborhood school, not one that is based on sociological experimentation. The homemaker knows that his home truly is his castle, and his right to rent or sell should not be restricted by federal bureaucrats.

It is because Americans understand these things so well that a powerful "backlash" is likely.

THE CITY OF BELLE GLADE, by the authority vested in me, do hereby proclaim October 16 through October 22, 1966 as sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., and urge all citizens in Belle Glade, all civic and fraternal groups, all educational associations, all news media and other community organizations to join in this salute to working women by encouraging and promoting the celebration of the achievements of all business and professional women as they contribute daily to our economic, civic and cultural purposes.

You can always rely on Diazinon® insecticide to provide total protection against insects at lowest possible cost . . . whether you apply it to protect above-ground crops or below-ground crops.

crops harvested for fresh market or processing. Just apply Diazinon as directed on the label.

No special protective clothing or devices are required when handling and applying Diazinon. However, when using pesticides you should always read and follow label directions.

Write us for your free copy of the Diazinon Handbook. It tells you how you can protect your crop best from both soil and foliage insects with one or more of the easy-to-use, economical Diazinon formulations — wettable powder, emulsifiable liquid, and granular.

Is Bible Worth Reading Today?

By Lewis Llewellyn

The Bible has been maligned, attacked, slandered — and neglected — by men for many years.

Some of the attackers have gained fame and fortune from their assaults on the Word of God. Several of them have predicted that the Bible could not survive their onslaughts.

Thomas Paine, who wrote "The Age of Reason," is reported to have said, "In five years from now there will not be a Bible in America. I have gone through the Bible with an axe, cut down all its trees."

These words were spoken about 200 years ago. Has Paine's prophecy been fulfilled?

Hardly. Millions of Bibles have been printed since that time and the Word of the Lord has been translated into many other languages, so that multitudes of people now have the Bible in their native tongues.

WHAT GREAT MEN SAY

Many great men have testified of the value of the Bible to them.

Admiral C. R. Brown, of the U. S. Navy, has said, "The Bible is the living record of man's progress toward God. I read it before I pray because it makes me feel close to God. I find the Bible an unfailing guide and certain source of strength and courage."

The great educator, Dr. William Lyon Phelps, professor at Yale University for many years, stated, "A knowledge of the Bible without a college education is of greater value than a college education without a knowledge of the Bible."

King David said "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul. The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart. The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. . . . More to be desired are they than gold — yea, than much fine gold."

Why, then, is the Bible neglected by so many?

The Gospel of John is a small book — only 21 brief chapters — which can be read through in a very short time. Yet it tells of the life of the Man Who changed the world and portrays events which altered the course of history.

Why not pick up the Gospel of John and read it through today?

Attacks against the Bible have not injured it, though the attackers have perished. But neglect of the Bible does great harm to those who fail to read it and heed its message.

(Mr. Llewellyn will send, free of charge, a copy of the Gospel of John to anyone who writes him, requesting it. You may address him in care of this newspaper or at Box 100, Sebring, Florida.)

First Church Of Christ Scientist

Attestment as the day-by-day effort to yield one's life to obedience to the laws of God is the theme of this week's Lesson-Sermon titled "Doctrine of Atonement" to be read in all Christian Science branch churches this Sunday.

Jesus' words, "If ye love me keep my commandments," from the fourteenth chapter of John, are related to this explanation from the denominational textbook: "The Christ was the Spirit which Jesus implied in his own statements: I am the way, the truth, and the life; I and my Father are one. This Christ, or divinity of the man Jesus, was his divine nature, the godliness which animated him."

Mr. Robert Newman, Mrs. G. U. Sprinkle, Mrs. C. Pate.

Young Women's Auxiliary, Director, Mrs. Rita Cunningham.

After the installation an interesting Mission program was presented by Mrs. Pat Rid-die on "The Search for God Among Language Groups."

Hornets Sting Rams

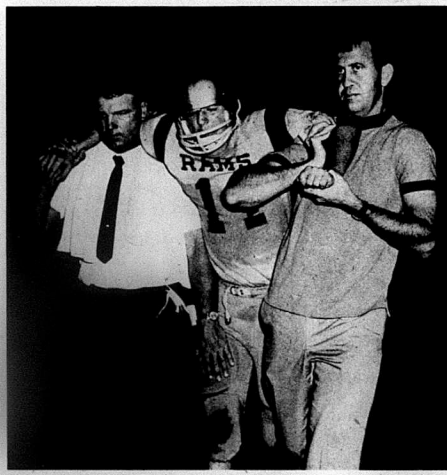

Tension began to mount as the band played the "Star-Spangled Banner," and the flag was raised. The fans were beaming with excitement and were eager for the game to begin. As the teams lined-up for the kick-off, the bleachers fairly swayed as the supporters of the teams chanted "Go-Go-GO." The kicking team booted a long, low kick, and the game between the Belle Glade Golden Rams and Riviera Beach Hornets was off to a spectacular start.

After only one minute and forty-six seconds of play, the Rams punted to the Hornets, blocked the kick, but fumbled the ball and B. G. regained possession on their own 48.

The Rams seemed to begin a purge on the goal after this play but just could not rally to their offense as the first half ended in a 0-0 tie.

The third quarter brought the first and only touchdown of the game. The Hornets' quarterback passed to a fellow teammate for 43 yards to make the score. After a successful extra point attempt, the Hornets edged the Rams 7-0.

Giving all they had, the Rams and fans alike kept trying until the last play of the game.

Johnny still had a limp, Monday from the Riviera game. He is helped off the field by Coach Crawford and Dr. Gray. They seem awfully worried about Johnny or else about the way the game was going.

Rams Take On Tigers

The Rams will face the Clewiston Tigers on the home field tomorrow night at 8:00. This year the Tigers main attack is their above average punting.

The Rams have been victorious over the Tigers for the past four years. They hope that this season will make it 5 years running and will maintain their 100 percent average.

Delray Edges Past Mustangs

The Belle Glade Junior High Mustangs were defeated by Delray Beach 13-7. Jerry Courson ran 5 yards for the Mustang touchdown and the extra point came on a pass from Stephen Close to Billy Thibault. This was a close and exciting game. Coach Ward said, "the whole team played a fine game." An all out effort was made by each team member and everyone hopes to see a lot of action from the Mustangs for the remainder of the season.

Player Of Week

Julio Perez was chosen as this week's "Player of the Week" because of his outstanding defensive playing in last Friday night's game. He has been on the Varsity team for two years and this year plays the position of defensive line-backer.

During the game, Julio recovered a Riviera Beach fumble to give Belle Glade possession of the ball.

When asked to comment on the game, Coach Burke replied, "The defense played a very good game, but in order to win more games the offense will have to move the ball better than they did against Riviera Beach last Friday night."

We feel that Julio efforts during the game have more than earned him the title of "Player of the Week."

Inez Gives Two Days Of Freedom

The winds blew and the rains came, but Inez stood still. Though school was closed Monday and Tuesday students still came. Maria Iglesias wanted to come so badly that Monday morning she was one of the few who showed up.

Tuesday morning many students rose bright and early to come to school, and they were a little disappointed when it was called off.

A select few students wanted to study so badly that they came and worked on their Humanities theme papers. They congregated in the library although there wasn't any school. Even though Inez stayed around for two days and school was closed the football boys went on with practice as usual. Inez didn't damage Belle Glade very much; however, it gave the students a nice rest from school — those who stayed away.

Rams Rained Out

After traveling to Stuart the JV game was rained out. The two teams could have played but the field was too wet and would not have been in condition for the Varsity game. The game will be made up on October 20 in Stuart.

RAM PAGE EDITORS AND BUSINESS MANAGER SELECTED

Janice Papp and Sherri Burgess were unanimously elected co-editors of the Ram Page by the Journalism Class. Jane Zumph was chosen business manager.

Making assignments, delivering articles, proofreading, and laying out the page are the duties of the co-editors. Each week a third Journalism student will work with the editors to gain experience in these procedures.

Serving as business manager, Jane will handle all monies from the subscription and ad sales for the Rambler and the Ram Page.

Co-editors and section editors for the Rambler will be elected at a later date.

One Down, Five To Go

Students breathed a sigh of relief after taking their first six week's test of this year. Each student carries six subjects, in which a test is given after every six weeks. The grade made on each test makes up a third of the final grade.

On October 11, students began another six weeks, hoping that it will be better than the last. They are taking.

Since there are two semesters, with eighteen weeks in each one, every student studies hard to come out with a good average at the end of the year.

Who was this teaching Kenny C. to skate Saturday night? Tell us, Kenny.

Hey, juniors, what is this about the GROUP?

Vickie W., this is a tuff car you're driving these days. It seems that a few of the students like school so much they come even when classes aren't held. What about it, Maria 1-7.

Pam W., why were you so mad at the Okcechobee game? Could it have been because of C. E. V., Esquire?

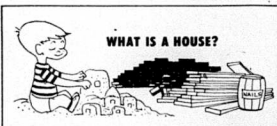

Senior girls, why the rush to the mailbox everyday? Gail S., who's your friend on the police force? We heard you met him while you were driving one day.

Kathy B., what happened to your car? Bryant D., who was the girl in the picture?

Mark W., bet you can't wait till November 14th! Home Ec. III girls, you look cute serving lunches.

Larry N. and Sonny C., how was Ft. Lauderdale?

WHAT IS A HOUSE?

A house is home and warmth and comfort. It is a place of rest and security. It isn't only bricks and wood and nails.

Home is the place where you live. If you're young you can find comfort, rest and security, even happiness here, because mom and dad are nearby — to help, to watch over, to provide for, and to offer love and affection.

A town is where you find lots of houses, and stores, and business places of all kinds. But a town isn't much if you don't find people there. A town is where people work and trade, and buy and sell. A town is where people work together to build things that everyone needs; to provide services and facilities that make a town a good place to live.

If you really live in a town, a good town, you never see it as bricks and wood and stone and nails. It's a way of life... in a good town, a good way of life.

J. V. Rams Face Seacrest

The J. V. Rams will face the Seacrest Seahawks J. V. squad tonight at Belle Glade Memorial Field.

Last year, the junior Seahawks defeated the Rams and the Ram squad is looking for revenge. According to Coach Bowers, the Seacrest team is always a good one and it will be a tough game tonight.

Bobcats Play Third Conference Game Against Murray High Lions

On Friday night, October 14, 1966, the Bobcats will journey to Murray High of Stuart, Florida for their third conference game.

This will be the Bobcats' third encounter with the Murray Lions. Incidentally, this term that accepted along with Gifford to the South East Atlantic Conference (SEAC).

As it stands now, Lake Shore has played Stuart twice and won each time.

Judging from our previous record, the Bobcat Page predicts that we will also win this game.

Art Teacher's Painting At Art Gallery In West Palm Beach

This year the Palm Beach County art teachers exhibit is being held at Palm Beach Junior College in Lake Worth. Mr. Leroy Williams, one of our art teachers, has entered four of his works in this exhibit. These works are entitled "Under Water Scene" (an abstract painting), "Sunset in the Everglades" (Expressionistic Painting), "Green Still Life" (Realistic Painting) and "Head of Christ" (Ceramic Sculpture). He explains that the three paintings were completed here in Belle Glade, while the "Head of Christ" was completed at the Carnegie Institute of Technology (Pittsburg), during a Ceramic Sculpture Class.

If you are an Art enthusiast, stop in at the Norton Art Gallery the next time you are in West Palm Beach. I promise that you will stay longer than you had intended. Among the outstanding work to be seen there are original works by Ganguin, Picasso, Rodin, Cezanne and many other outstanding Contemporary Artists and Craftsmen. Drop in and take a look.

A Writer Too?

Mr. P. James Jenkins, English teacher here at Lake Shore has proven himself a man of multiple talents. Of the latest discover, he is a writer.

The well-liked, very modest Mr. Jenkins was a tenor soloist with the nationally famous Concert Chorus of Bethune-Cookman College where he thrived and captivated his audiences more than three years. With his love for music, he says that he can find middle C on the piano, but there is a lot more to it than that.

... He plays it.

Like three others of our faculty, Mr. Jenkins is a fluent speaker of the Spanish language. He has also a command of French and has studied Italian, Portuguese and German.

You would be surprised to know that his hobbies include Judo & Dental Technology. He says that he likes that combination because if he breaks some (teeth) out, he could fix them again.

When asked how does he have time for all of these activities, he described in his poem:

I sat there wondering, alone and shy,
Wondering about things like
"Who am I?"
Of course I know my family and given name,
But what great thing had I contributed to fame.

I sat there wondering, just what I'd need
To become famous or just to do a good deed.
Then a voice said to me as I began to frown,
"Get up stupid, you can't do anything sitting down."

—Mary Nelson

I sat there wondering, alone and shy,
Wondering about things like
"Who am I?"
Of course I know my family and given name,
But what great thing had I contributed to fame.

The Wild West Comes To Lake Shore

Mr. and Mrs. Don Stone, from Montana, staged a Rodeo at an Assembly program October 6, 1966, in our Gymnasium. They were both raised on a ranch out West, and have appeared in rodeo's and Circles all over the Country.

During the show, tricks with ropes and whips were demonstrated. A couple of the whips that were used were Bull whips and a Dog Sleigh whip. One of the ropes that they had was a rope made out of horse hair, which the students found very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone displayed western souvenirs that were from Theodore Roosevelt's Museum in Montana. This was the first in a series of lucky presentations to be given at our school this term.

Lake Shore Observes Fire Prevention Week

The Lake Shore Family will observe Fire Prevention Week October 9-14 with a series of fire drills, visitors from the Fire Department of Belle Glade, and a skit entitled "The Trial of Fire." The skit will feature students from the Junior High Department, who will try and express to us the danger of having fire hazards in the home. We hope this program will be helpful to everyone.

Girl Scouts Send In Applications For National Convention

Four members of the Lake Shore Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 194 have sent in applications to represent the Palm Glades Council of the Girl Scouts of America at the National Convention, which is to be held in Detroit, Michigan on October 23-27. They are Gloria Butts, Catherine Lowe, Lula Carigan and Sharon Butts.

Four scouts will be sent to Detroit, Michigan to represent the Palm Glades Council. Applications have been received from each troop in the council. The representatives will be chosen on the basis of their participation in activities sponsored by the scouting program and on the basis of the services rendered to their community.

We are hoping that one of our four applicants will be chosen to take on the responsibility of representing the council. The entire troop feels that if one of our applicants is chosen, she will represent the council and the school to the best of her ability.

Walker Rates Player Of The Week With California College Team

Gary Walker, outstanding Back and All-Conference award winner with Belle Glade Rams, continues to star college football in California with the Imperial Valley College of the Desert where he is a freshman.

Although the COD lost their first game against Imperial Valley College Arabs, Gary was cited most favorably for his performance.

"On the plus side for COD" according to the California Daily News, "the coach Tom O'Connor singled out the playing of fullback Gary Walker, who was named Player of the Week by the Roadrunner coaching staff. Walker, a fine looking transfer from Florida, did everything a fullback is supposed to do — and more. He is fast and runs with great power and finesse."

A further quote with photo: "Key Roadrunner — had running fullback Gary Walker is shown here as he bursts through the Imperial Valley College line on a run which covered 26 yards, before he was finally hauled down to the turf. The Roadrunner back racked up 89 yards carrying the pickin for his night's work."

Gary's parents and young brother Harry O. will be returning home from California sometime this month after spending several weeks in Palm Desert.

Scotland Visitor Says: "Poor Eating Habits, Fast Living Make Americans Big Pill-takers"

Weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Kidder, 149 S. E. 5th Street North was Mrs. Jessie Wallace of Leven, Scotland. Mrs. Wallace is the sister of Thomas W. Calderhead a British train pilot who perished in a plane crash near the Experiment Station in 1945. Mrs. Wallace came to see the grave of her late brother in Arcadia and to visit the Kidders who have corresponded with her family since the crash.

Belle Glade is Mrs. Wallace's last major stop before completing a 99-dollar, 99-day Greenwich Bus trip which began at Baltimore and ended in Detroit, Chicago, Cheyenne, Denver, Yellowstone, Salt Lake City, Las Vegas, Grand Canyon, El Paso, New Orleans and St. Petersburg. She liked St. Petersburg best of the lot. She returns to Baltimore this week.

Prior to traveling she worked at a housekeeper for a family in Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey, for about 15 months. "Forty-four, fair, and vivacious our Scottish visitor had some interesting impressions of America and Americans. Everything is so big here—the highways, the skyscrapers, the houses, the department stores, and supermarkets, according to her. And there are so many wealthy people."

However, she takes a dim view of our eating habits. "You are always eating," she says. Especially the children. "Children are always going to the frig and then they don't eat when it's mealtime. We have better eating habits. We sit down and eat a proper meal and don't nibble in between meals."

"You're always eating at the cinema, you get up in the middle of the cinema and get popcorn in one hand and a hot dog in the other. We never do that in Scotland. . . . We go and enjoy the film."

She feels poor eating habits as well as fast living make Americans big pill-takers.

James Binkley Assigned To Vietnam
BIEN HOA, VIETNAM (AHTNC) — Army Specialist Fifth Class James R. Binkley, 29, whose mother, Mrs. Doris A. Binkley, and wife, Takko, live at 500 N. W. 16th St., Belle Glade, Fla., was assigned the III Corps in Vietnam, Sept. 27.

Spec. Binkley, an adviser with the corps, entered on active duty in June 1960 and was stationed at Ft. Ord, Calif. before arriving in Vietnam.

He was graduated from Belle Glade High School in 1955.

B. Weeks, USN Completes Basic Training
GREAT LAKES ILL. (FHTNC) — Seaman Recruit Barnes S. Weeks, 18, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Weeks, of 732 W. Canal St., Belle Glade, Fla., has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

George Jackson Promoted In Vietnam
PIEIKU, VIETNAM (AHTNC) — George W. Jackson, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monk Jackson, Canal Point, Fla., was promoted to Army specialist fourth class Sept. 13 in Viet Nam, where he is serving with the 29th Engineer Battalion.

For pay purposes, his new grade is equivalent to corporal. A construction specialist in the battalion's Company C stationed near Pleiku, he entered on active duty in September 1965 and was last stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

Spec. Jackson is a 1963 graduate of Pahokee High School.

Jerry Trotter Is Attending Naval School
PATUXENT RIVER, MD. (FHTNC) — Engineman Second Class Jerry C. Trotter, Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trotter of 1108 Palm Beach Road, Belle Glade, Fla., is now attending the Construction Mechanics "A" School at U. S. Naval Schools, Construction, at Port Huemue.

Mrs. Wallace says there is noakra in Scotland, that few the Park and a taste for corn on the cob, but that Scots often have turnips, something she's missed in America. "I never had a hamburger or hot dog in a home before coming to America. Scots would not serve these in their homes and few public places do so."

Last Friday night she went to the Belle Glade — Okeechobee football game, her first in America. She did not understand it, but thought it "very exciting," and was amused at the audience when they shouted to the players to "do this and do that." She thought the majorities were "very smart."

Back home in Scotland the BBC television has no advertising. "I own a pay a license fee each year. She says our TV programs are interrupted far too often during a program. "You don't enjoy the program. . . . you get to where you just can't be bothered switching channels."

Our women's fashions and Halloween escapades top her list of surprises, fashions being too skimpy and Halloween too much. In Scotland no children dress up and come into the homes to perform. After they sing or dance or recite they are presented with sweets (candy).

Mrs. Wallace expects to return to Scotland the last of this month — maybe she'll make it in time for a good old Halloween.

It's been a pleasure meeting you, Mrs. Wallace. Bon Voyage!

Your Library
Tues.-Sat. 8:30 - 12:00, 1:00 - 5:00
Thurs. night 6:30-9:00
Library staff members, who will no longer have access to the Police Station code machine when they move over to the new library, are requested to place with the plans for an 8 x 9 kitchenette in the new library building.

They envision a long line of future librarians, and assistants, starting their Metracal for lunch in the small refrigerator the room will provide.

Plans also call for a small range and sink, and a limited amount of ground floor storage in the room. The other planned storage in the building is above the work room and access, reached by pull-down steps.

A primary purpose of the kitchenette is to provide facilities for preparing coffee for groups meeting in the adjacent Multi-Purpose Room. With its built-in seating capacity of 65, the Multi-Purpose Room will be available during or after library hours for meetings, social organizations, or study groups.

There are still some duplicate and discarded books from the library shelves, under a FOR SALE sign near the entrance to the library. At 25¢ a copy these are bargain!

The Smart Place To Go... For Good Things To Eat! 225 West Canal St. - Belle Glade

Pictured above is Mrs. Wilma Alley, Deputy Director of the Glades Area of the Palm Beach County Welfare Department. This is a subsidiary office of the County Welfare Department located in West Palm Beach. Mrs. Alley began her duties with this Department in January of 1957. At this time she worked out of her home, the city halls of Belle Glade and Pahokee and the Health Departments of these cities. In September of 1958, when the Glades Office Building was opened, a permanent Welfare Office was established in the building. At this time Mrs. Alley was the only employee of this office with part time clerical services provided by the Board of County Commissioners. Now, after eight years with an established office, the staff includes three case workers, one intake worker and a department secretary.

This department offers temporary assistance to the county's needy residents and serves as a service referral agency for those seeking advice and information. Among the major assistance programs included are various clinics, heart, tumor and pediatrics. Their services are many and varied but the two newest available are, serving as one of the agency's who certify for Federal foods and to make social data summaries for those awaiting competency hearings for the County Judge.

The offices of Dr. Luis R. Guerrero will be closed from Saturday, October 8th through October 16th.

Dr. Guerrero will be attending the American College of Surgeons in San Francisco, California.

Will reopen his office on Monday 17th.

Glades Courthouse Notes

By Mary Arthur Starling

Due to vacation and being unable to meet a deadline, I have missed a couple of issues. Sorry 'bout that! Nice being back in the swing of things.

Our Small Claims Clerk, Elsie Epstein, has returned from her vacation, and what a vacation! From her tales and souvenirs I think she must have eaten her way from Pahokee to New York, from New York to Cleveland, Ohio and back again. It certainly didn't hurt her school girl figure though!

Maria Busbee and her husband, Johnny, have returned from their vacation to Bath, South Carolina where they visited with Johnny's parents. While on vacation they also visited Chimney Rock and Asheville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. George Young motored to Miami last week where they admitted their son, Chappy in Mercy Hospital. Chappy underwent surgery on Friday of last week and is reported doing very well. He is expected to return home the last of this week.

The Welfare Department has a new face, Mrs. Marian Dobrow. Mrs. Dobrow will be filling the capacity of Intake Worker. She is the wife of Pahokee City Councilman, Oscar Dobrow and has four children, Michael, Mary, Karen and Diane.

Another new face at the Glades Office Building is Mr. Jerry Stejskal, Assistant County Solicitor. Mr. Stejskal is filling the position vacated by Mr. Don T. Adams who is an Attorney in Pahokee. The County Solicitor will be serving in the Glades Office Building on Monday's and Friday's.

You will always find Mrs. Grace Easterly with this welcome smile as you enter the office of the Welfare Department. She has been secretary to this department since September of 1961. Before coming to the Welfare Department she served as Office Manager and Insurance Clerk at the Everglades Memorial Hospital in Pahokee for seven years. There is no possible way to list all of the duties of Mrs. Easterly as they are so many and varied. She is literally considered the "Grit Friday" of the Welfare Department.

Mrs. Easterly and her husband, Bill, have been residents of Pahokee for thirty years. They have one son, Lee, who also resides in Pahokee with his wife, Louise, and sons, Tony and Todd.

Here, in District 5, we are once again preparing for another harvest season. The County's part in preparing for our forthcoming harvest means an increased work schedule for our Road and Bridge Department in making sure that our farm to market roads are in acceptable shape for the heavy use that they receive. There are numerous other details to attend to at the County level, in fact, too numerous to mention.

An additional item of interest to our cane growers: A County owned tract of land west of Lake Worth has been leased for a period of years to the United States Department of Agriculture for experimental purposes. The program that the USDA was currently occupied with, has been terminated. A new program dealing with the control of the cane borer will get underway very shortly and a request for a lease extension has been granted to insure sufficient time to evaluate the results of the experimental program that will take place on this land. It makes sense to conduct an experiment, that requires an abundance of cane growers, in an area that is removed from our cane industry. Of further interest, the scientist who contributed so much to the eradication of the screw worm fly in our State will have a part in the cane borer eradication program. As you remember, the screw worm fly was eliminated by rendering the male fly sterile through the use of nuclear radiation. Wonder if this is what is going to happen to the worm?

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bamford spent the weekend visiting their son, John, at Stetson University Deland and also Mrs. Bamford's brother-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Blackner and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Carpenter at Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Wallace from Leven Fife, Scotland was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kidder recently for several days. On Sunday before leaving Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Kidder and family joined them for dinner.

LI. Commander J. T. Williams of Norfolk, Virginia had an opportunity to fly to Florida, so spent the weekend with his brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKee. He left Monday A. M.

Douglas Wedgworth was home for the weekend from Bolles School for Boys in Jacksonville. He was accompanied by a classmate, Clark Teale. Deborah Wedgworth also spent the weekend at home and her house guest was Sally Blair. Both girls are students at Pinecrest School in Ft. Lauderdale.

Miss Mary Mathewson and Miss Jenny Austin were in Tallahassee for the Florida-FSU football game. They returned home the early part of the week.

Attending the Florida-FSU game in Tallahassee were a Pahokee and South Bay as guests of ABC Crate Co. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tom Boynton, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Apodgin, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Murray and Mr. and Mrs. George Wedgworth. They traveled in the Wedgworth bus, leaving Friday and returning Sunday.

Mrs. Myrt Tabit formerly of Belle Glade has moved from Miami to her cottage on Buckhead Ridge in Okeechobee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tyler from Juno visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Warren last Thursday until Sunday.

Ford's famous quiet ride comes in 18 beautiful styles for 1967

Quieter because they're stronger. Stronger because they're better built. For '67, the best-built Fords in history.

3 new LTD's. All three LTD models—2-door hardtop, 4-door hardtop, and 4-door sedan—offer conveniences like a transmission that shifts both manually and automatically (standard), and a full-width front seat that divides to adjust independently for driver and passenger.

2 new XL's. Both the XL 2-door hardtop and convertible offer, as standard, bucket seats and console, plus spirited 260-cu. in. V-8. A 7-Litre power option includes a 428-cu. in. V-8, power disc front brakes, and sports steering wheel.

13 new Galaxies, Custom's, wagons. Convertibles, wagons, hardtops, sedans all offer basic Ford strength and quiet, plus a wide range of conveniences and options. Wagons provide a two-way Magic Doorgate that swings out for people and down for cargo.

Better ideas from Ford. SelectShift Cruise-O-Matic transmission shifts automatically... or lets you shift manually without a clutch for things like climbing hills, downshifting to save brakes, pulling trailers, getting extra traction in mud and snow, or just for fun. It's available on every '67 Ford. And all '67s come with Ford Motor Company Lifeguard Design Safety Features.
